

THE MEN'S SUITS

HANDLED here are suits that any one might well be proud of making, whether a custom tailor or not. There's as much care and attention given to each detail as in the finest and highest price tailoring in the land, and there's no suit here that isn't worthy of the guarantee of entire satisfaction that we give with it. The popular line seems to be at $15, but, higher or lower, the goods are right, the making's right and the best value is given that the same amount of money ever secured. Look at the line which is priced in accordance with your purse—$5, $8, $10, $12, $15, $18, $20, $22 or $25. The last price means that you're getting everything that custom tailors give at double.

MEN'S FURNISHING GOODS.

Every fad and fancy finds place here; every article of staple merit is sure to be here. Best in all points of real goodness and priced at the lowest notch really reliable goods ever sold for.

The holiday goods are coming in plentifully. First pick may mean something and we'll lay aside for you anything on which you make a deposit. The new dressing sacks are beauties—rich and exclusive in pattern and styles. Bath robes, too, are nice things to give—and some of the umbrellas are perfect poems of art. Come and have a peep before the holiday rush starts.

MEN'S HATS.

The name of "The Model" in your hat means that it's the best hat money can make for the price, and better than nine-tenths that are offered at the same figure. The $2.00 and $3.00 "Model" Hats must be good, or you get a new one wherever one fails. No need to pay that much if you don't wish to, and plenty of chance to go higher if you like—75 cents to $6.

MEN'S OVERCOATS.

HEW with the season; latest ideas, freshest styles, most perfect making. A whole floor devoted to them and plenty of each price to select from—$5, $8, $10, $12, $15, $18, $20, $22, $25, $28, $30 or $35. If you happen to find anything better or more to your liking after buying, bring back what you've bought and get your money.

A LITTLE GIFT

For the little fellows—a pair of Indian clubs or dumb bells with each suit or overcoat in the children's department. These come stamped with the name of "The Model," and are intended as an advertisement, but will be none the less welcome for that.

UNDERWEAR.

Satisfactory for the price and better than usual at that price. From 50 cents to $4.50 the garment, and none but extra good among it.

CHILDREN'S NOVELTIES.

No lack of them—and a better variety than you'll find in any other store in town; newer, too, for there's not one item in the lot that isn't of this season's making. Prices built on hopes of future business, not of getting rich on one sale.

MEN'S SHOES.

That have all the charm of style and none of the drawbacks of discomfort. There's where the real art of shoe making comes in. As to the wear, that's guaranteed with a new pair whenever these fail you, in all lines at $3 or over, with the exception of patent leathers.

GLOVES.

For work, play or dress. Grades that are worthy of your confidence and backed by our guarantee. From 50 cents up to $4.00.

CHILDREN'S FURNISHINGS.

Just as varied an assortment as you'll be able to find for the grown folks. We know of no other store where they may surely be had. In need, turn to us—your first trial will bring you here again.

NECKWEAR.

As fine a line as was ever brought together, and moderately priced, too. From 25 cents to $2.50, and not a style or color combination missing.
